

History - Week 2

Today we are going to look at what a timeline is and what decades are.

Being by explaining that a decade is a period of 10 years. Show your child the example below. This shows what happened in each decade at Chester Zoo.

We are now going to talk about timelines and what they are. Show your child the video below. Click on the link or type:

We would like the children to create a timeline of their life. Starting at when they were born, including significant events that have happened e.g. christening ending with this year and lockdown. The children need to present their work on a timeline. They can use the one attached or create their own.
