

Speaking, Listening and Attention

The children will share their experiences through circle time using expressive vocabulary. The children will work in groups to produce short presentations on sea creatures.

Understanding

The children will play simple instructional games to practice following 2 part instructions.

Reading

Children will be grouped according to their phonic ability. Phase 2- learning letter sounds. Phase 3 – learning letter sounds and blending. Children will be given reading books and introduced to online reading scheme.

Writing

Children will learn how to form letter correctly and begin to write simple 3 letter words. Children will be taught about labels and captions and encouraged to use them in their writing. Children will be given individual writing targets and will practice writing simple sentences weekly.

GREASBY INFANT SCHOOL

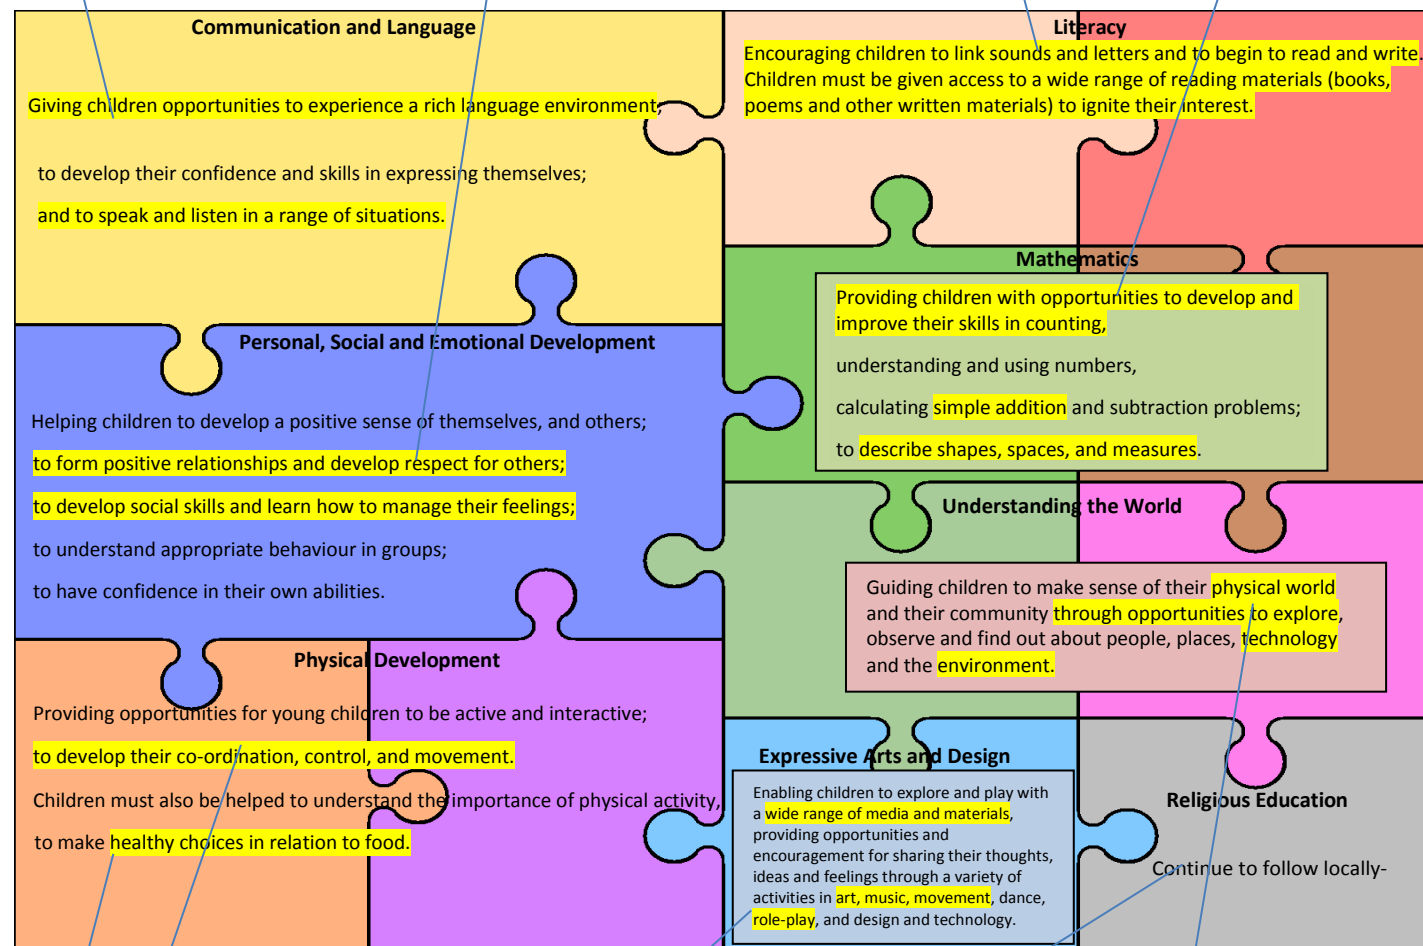

Foundation Stage Curriculum Overview

Autumn Term 2015

Diwali / Under the Sea / Christmas

Numbers – Children will learn to count to 20 and recognize numbers to 10. They will be introduced to simple addition and the use of apparatus to support problem solving.
Shape, Space and Measure – The children will learn the names of 2D shapes and be able to talk about their properties. They will use non-standard units to measure weight height and capacity through exploration and challenges in provision.

Managing Feeling and Behaviour – The children will learn about kind hands, feet and mouths as part of being a good friend and SEAL.
Self-confidence and Self-awareness – The children will be encouraged to be confident speakers through new sharing and small group discussions. Family traditions will be explored and children will be asked to share experiences from home.
Making Relationships – The children will learn about friendship through SEAL lessons linked to kind hands, feet and mouths. They will learn about taking turns and sharing through games in continuous provision.

Moving and Handling – the children will practice fine and gross motor skills through the use of collage, handwriting practice, the use of scissors, large play equipment, small world and construction.

Health and Self Care

The children will explore healthy choices when looking at school meals and diet. They will be encouraged to be independent when changing for PE and toileting. The children will learn about the importance of being clean and hand washing in relation to germs and health.

Being Imaginative – the children will learn about string instruments, beat and will be composing some simple music related to sea creatures. They will listen to music and express themselves through movement.

Media and Materials – the children will experiment will colour mixing through our autumn themed week. They will also work in groups to design and create Rangoli patterns in 2D and 3D. The children will experiment will colour and texture through sand and water.

RE

The children will explore the Bible stories of Jonah and the Whale and Noah's Ark as part of our Under the Sea theme. We will also be learning about the Christmas story. The children will learn about the similarities and differences between Hinduism and Christianity and will learn to have respect for one another's religions.

Technology – the children will be learning how to use Color Magic and practicing mouse control through simple games. The children will also be using the iPads, Cameras and Bee Bots to enhance their learning during continuous provision.

The World – the children will be learning about the environment through our Under the Sea theme, they will explore pollution and littering. The children will be looking at patterns in nature and discussing seasonal changes.